Subject: Invitation as Judge for Judging Semi-Final Round of 12th Shankarrao Kanitkar National Moot Court Competition on 13th January, 2018.

Respected Ma'am,

It gives us immense pleasure to introduce our institution, Progressive Education Society, Pune to you. Established in the year 1934, and aptly named 'Progressive Education Society', the Society has taken great strides in the modernization of education. Social service through dynamic education has been the time-honoured credo of the Progressive Education Society.

The P.E. Society's Modern Law College has carved a niche for itself though it is still in nascent stage. The College has remained steadfast to its commitment for inculcating the 'spirit of the law' in the law students.

In our endeavour to enhance mootting skills and augment knowledge of law, P.E.S. Modern Law College in association with Board of Students Welfare, Savitribai Phule Pune University, is organising 12th Shankarrao Kanitkar National Moot Court Competition, 2018.

We cordially invite you as a Judge for judging the Preliminary Round of 12th Shankarrao Kanitkar National Moot Court Competition on 13th January, 2018 at 09:00 am. We would be obliged if you could grace this event with your presence and valuable guidance from you. Your graceful presence will make this event a memorable which we will always cherish.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To
The Board of Trustees,
SINHGAD TECHNICAL EDUCATION SOCIETY
PUNE

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Sinhgad Technical Education Society's Sinhgad Law College, Ambegaon, Pune which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2022, the Statement of Income and Expenditure for the year then ended, and notes on a significant accounting policies and other explanatory information and disclosures.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanation given to us, except for the effects of the matter described in the Basis of Qualified Opinion Paragraph, the aforesaid financial statements give the information required by The Maharashtra Public Trust Act, 1950 ('Act') in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of Sinhgad Law College, Ambegaon, Pune as at 31st March, 2022 and Surplus for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the applicable Standards on Auditing (SA's) as prescribed by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Society in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibility of Management for the Financial Statements

The management of Sinhgad Law College, Ambegaon, Pune is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs (financial position) Surplus (financial performance including other comprehensive income) in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India.

The responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Society and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities, selection and application of appropriate accounting policies, making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent, and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Society's ability to continue as a going concern disclosing as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting.

The management of the institution is also responsible for overseeing the society's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the financial statements

Emphasis of Matters:

1] Symbolic possession of the properties taken by the lender banks:-

4In view of defaults in repayment of term loan dues, the lender banks have taken symbolic possession of the respective Mortgaged Properties under "SARFESAI Act, 2002" as per the details below-

Sr. No.	Name of the Lender Bank	Properties situated at
1.	Bank of India	Ambegaon Campus

3] Scrutiny of outstanding fees:

The scrutiny in respect of old outstanding fees recoverable from students with has not been carried out by Management in respect of some of its units and hence, provision for non-recoverable fees, if any, has not been made in the books of account.

4) Scrutiny of outstanding Deposits from Students and Other Liabilities

The scrutiny in respect of old outstanding Deposits from Students who have left out and Other Liabilities year wise listings has not been carried out by Management in respect of some of its units & Corporate Office and hence, necessary accounting effects in respect of the amounts which are not required to be repaid have not been given.

5] Advances to Employees against Salaries of Rs.45.81 Lacs:

Advances of Rs.45.81 Lacs paid to the employees against salaries have been separately reflected under "Advances to Employees" instead of adjusting the same against Salaries & Wages Payable. The Management has informed that the said adjustment would be made at the time of full and final settlement of salaries for the respective months

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and subject to notes forming part of the accounts we report that:-

1. Sinhgad Law College, Ambegaon, Pune has maintained separate books of account in respect of each financial year.
2. Sinhgad Law College, Ambegaon, Pune has maintained books of account on mercantile system of accounting except as mentioned in the notes on accounts attached herewith and is following the same method of accounting consistently.
3. We have obtained all the information and explanations, which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit and for determination of fees by the Fees Regulating Authority constituted as per the provisions of the Maharashtra Unaided Private Professional Educational Institutions (Regulation of Admissions and Fees) Act, 2015 and minutes of the various meetings of the said authority.
4. The accounts of Sinhgad Law College, Ambegaon, Pune have been prepared by following Accounting Standard - 17: 'Segment Reporting' as per details specified in Note no. 2(iii) of Schedule No. 12.
5. The Balance Sheet and Income & Expenditure Account dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of account.
6. In our opinion, Sinhgad Law College, Ambegaon, Pune has kept proper books of account as required by law so far as it appears from our examination of these books.
7. In our opinion the Balance Sheet and Income & Expenditure Account comply with relevant Accounting Standards
8. Following are the audit observations for the year under consideration:
 - a) As per the information and explanation given to us, GST Liability/ Refund, if any, will be provided / accounted for on finalization of GST Audit.

- b) These financial Statements have been prepared incorporating various charges levied by the Society on its various branches / units as per the estimates /judgments made by the Management. Although these are based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainties about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in future period.
- c) During the year, on several occasions, Sinhgad Law College, Ambegaon, Pune has defaulted in remitting payment of the following Statutory dues within the prescribed time limits-
- Tax Deducted at Source
 - GST
 - Provident Fund
 - Gratuity
- d) It is observed that the provision for D.A Arrears has been made as per the Government resolution issued from time to time.
9. The aforesaid financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of Sinhgad Law College, Ambegaon, Pune as at March 31, 2022 and it's Surplus for the year ended on that date.

1. Overview:-

Sinhgad Technical Education Society ["Society"] is a Public Charitable Trust duly registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 and the Maharashtra Public Trusts Act, 1950. The Society is engaged in imparting education and is also providing medical facilities through its General Hospital and Dental Hospital mainly on charitable basis. It maintains separate books of account in respect of its various units and accordingly Statement of Accounts are drawn in respect of each unit. Sinhgad Law College is one of the units of the Society which is mainly involved in imparting the education in the field of Law.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

i. General:-

The accounting policies not specifically referred to herein below are consistent with the generally accepted accounting principles.

ii. Basis for preparation of financial statements:-

The financial statements have been prepared as per historical cost convention and in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles in India and materially comply with the mandatory Accounting Standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. The accounts are prepared as per Mercantile System of Accounting in respect of material items as per the policy consistently followed by the Society in previous years.

iii. Segment Reporting:

- a) Accounting Standard-17 on 'Segment Reporting' is not mandatorily applicable to the accounts of the Institution. However, Govt. of Maharashtra has constituted Fees Regulating Authority under Section 11(2)(3)(4) of the Maharashtra Unaided Private Professional Educational Institutions (Regulation Admission and Fees) Act, 2015. The said Authority in its meeting held on 1st July 2016 passed a resolution in respect of the matters to be included in the Auditor's Report.

Accordingly the report has to deal with books of account and method of accounting for each segment i.e. every course for which the approval of the fees is sought from the Fees Regulating Authority.

b) Accordingly the various courses run by Sinhgad Law College, Ambegaon (hereinafter referred as 'the institution') have been considered as different segments for the purpose of preparation of financial statements. The accounting treatment given to the various type of transactions is as under:-

- i) The expenses incurred and charges levied by the Institution which are directly attributable to a specific segment have been allocated to the respective segment and the residual expenses (including the common expenses of Ambegaon Campus Office and the Corporate Office) have been allocated to all the segments on the basis of the estimates / best judgments made by the Management.
- ii) The fees and related income earned by each segment has been reflected as per actuals. The other miscellaneous income is allocated among the segments on the basis of the estimates / best judgments made by the Management.
- iii) As per the practice consistently followed in earlier years, the assets and liabilities of the Institution have not been allocated / apportioned among various segments since there is no such requirement of the statutory regulatory authorities and since there are practical difficulties in recording the same in the books of account accordingly.

iv. Revenue Recognition:-

a) Income from Fees:-

The revenue from fees received from students is recognized on 'over the academic year basis.

b) Sale of items:-

The revenue from sale of prospectus is recognized at the time of actual sale of such items. The cost of printing charged to expenses as and when purchased.

c) Interest received:-

Interest on investments is accounted for on accrual basis except interest on saving bank accounts.

v. Use of Estimates:-

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Accounting Standards prescribed by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities at the end of the reporting period. Although these estimates are based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainties about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in future period.

vi. Fixed Assets:-

- a) All direct expenses attributable to Fixed Assets acquired are capitalized. Initial accessories purchased along with the new assets are capitalized. Replacement accessories and other spares are charged out as expenses.
- b) Fixed Assets are shown at historical cost. Capital subsidy / grants received against specific asset are reduced from the cost of relevant assets.

vii. Depreciation:-

- a) Depreciation is provided on Written Down Value [WDV] Method at the rates decided by the Management as mentioned in Schedule 1: Fixed Assets.
- b) Depreciation on additions to Fixed Assets is charged for the whole year irrespective of date of acquisition or the date on which it is put to use.
- c) No depreciation is provided on the assets disposed off / discarded during the year.
- d) Depreciation charged is reflected by creating Depreciation Fund.

viii. Grants:-

- a) Research and development grant received with specific direction has been shown net of its utilization for the purpose for which it is received.
- b) Examination and / or Seminar Grants received from the University / other authorities have been included in Other Liabilities at net of expenditure incurred.

ix. Investments:-

- a) Long Term Fixed Deposits with Banks are shown under Investments, while Short Term Deposits are shown under Cash & Bank Balances.
- b) Investments are stated at Cost.

x. Softwares:-

Expenditure on softwares purchased during the year is debited to the Income & Expenditure Account.

xi. Provisions:-

Provisions are made based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current management estimate.

xii. Retirement Benefits:-

a) Provident Fund:-

The Employer's contribution to Provident Fund is charged to Income & Expenditure Account.

b) Gratuity:-

The Society provides for gratuity, a defined benefit retirement plan covering all employees. The Gratuity Plan provides a lump sum payment to all eligible employees at retirement, death, incapacitation or termination of employment, of an amount based on the respective employee's salary and the tenure of employment. Society's liability is actuarially determined at the end of the year using Projected Unit Credit Method. Though Gratuity expense has been recognized in the books of each unit, the consolidated liability for the same in respect of all the units under the Society is ultimately recorded in the books of the Corporate Office.

xiii. Affiliation & Recognition Fees :-

The fees paid during the year have been accounted for as under:-

- a) Fees for academic year 2021-22 have been charged out during the year.
- b) Fees for next academic year are treated as Prepaid Expense.
- c) The refund received, if any, is treated as income in the year of receipt.

3. Expenditure on the objects of the Trust:-

The expenses pertaining to salaries and allowances of non- teaching staff and other administrative / establishment expenses are the expenses incurred on the objects of the Trust and hence the same have been shown accordingly as per the practice consistently followed.

4. Advances paid to staff against salaries:-

In view of the severe cash crunch faced by the Society, employees have been paid advances against salary. The liability towards salaries payable till the end of the previous year and advances paid to staff towards the same have been transferred to the Corporate Office.

5. Fixed Deposits with Banks :-

Fixed Deposits with Banks as disclosed under Schedule No. 7 include:-

Particulars	Amount (Rs.)
Other fixed Deposits:
Other Fixed Deposits free from encumbrances	17,91,186
Total	17,91,186

6. Provision for late fees and interest on delayed payment of Statutory dues :-

- Provision for interest on late payment of GST and Provident Fund dues has been made in the books of the Corporate Office only.
- Provision of Rs. 78,200/- for late fees payable under section 234E of the Income Tax Act for the period has been made during the year.
- Provision of Rs. 44,603/- for Interest on Delayed payment on TDS during the year has been made during the year. However, the same has not been made in respect of the past period due to complexities involved in ascertaining the said liability.

7. Balance Confirmations:

All balances in the personal accounts are subject to their confirmations and /or reconciliation.
